Use Alfredà™ WebViewer to stream video from your computer. VERSATILEEvery world wants to protect their loved ones and ensure their safety. You don't™ need a professionally monitored home security system to do this. Unlike traditional video surveillance systems or surveillance cameras, you can place Alfred anywhere and change as often as you like wherever you need to enhance security. You don't even have to buy™ an IP or webcam camera. In addition to the cost of equipment, these smart appliances often charge a monthly fee. With Alfred, there is a complicated installation, IP settings or contract. All you have to do is download Alfred to build a diy home security system: pure and simple. In addition to the ability to stream live from your home, Alfred keeps you up to date on what's going on in your home with motion sensor and instant alerts. If you see an intruder, you can scare them by talking through the walkie-talkie and immediately notify the local authorities. It works like an alarm. The videos are kept safely in free cloud storage, and can be saved or downloaded as evidence to help identify the suspect. Alfred is an essential part of any home improvement or home automation project if you are interested in building a smart home or experimenting with voice assistants such as Google Assistant. Consider the following scenario: when holidays like Christmas, Thanksgiving, and black friday approach, the number of packages everyone receives increases. Unfortunately, the same applies to cases of parcel theft. The tracking of the express company does not protect your precious parcels! If you look at a crime map, you will see that burglary happens more often than you can imagine. How can you deter parcel thieves? In addition to being part of Crime Stoppers, you should have Alfred keep at the entrance of your home and keep an eye on your property as well as purchases. Do you feel any anxiety caused by the increase in crime? Wherever you live, your neighbourhood and city are safer if everyone has security measures in place. If you are a tenant to have a roommate, you might need a security system that is easy to set up and portable. When you travel, you may want to make sure your hotel is safe. After all, if something like snooping, breaking and entering, theft, car accident, or your landlord entering the apartment without your permission, the Alfred video records will be extremely useful. ECO-CONSCIOUS Why throw away perfectly usable devices and buy more equipment when you can upcycle, recycle and reuse old appliances? Everyone takes advantage of their unused smartphones by turning them into music players, GPS browsers or fitness devices. So why not use yours as a security camera?
